According to the EPC guidelines, it is required that "all text in other languages on campaign materials must have an accurate English translation that appears in equal stature and size." On March 5th, at approximately 11 PM, I was informed of a poster and accompanying text shared by a candidate in Mandarin within a public group chat earlier that same evening. Upon investigation, it was determined that the communications in this groupchat were predominantly in Mandarin; however, the poster and text were distributed without an English translation of equal stature and size, thereby contravening the rules set forth in the EPC. As this constitutes a clear violation of the election procedures, I must issue a formal violation notice in accordance with the established protocols. Unintentional misrepresentation of facts - 3 points. You have 48 hours to appeal this decision.
